IV. REPORTS OF OFFICERS, BOARDS, COMMITTEES, & DEPARTMENTS

A) E.D.A. Report

- 1) Director Collins and Attorney Moran explained: Voigt- Smith Innovations, LLC was requesting both a $5,000 Micro Loan and $30,000 Revolving Fund Loan for their business located at 150 East Sharon Street in Le Center. Jordan Smith was present to explain what his business does/ how he will use the money to remodel the building. EDA Board had recommended approval of both loans. After some discussion; Motion by Harmeyer, Seconded by Meidlinger, to approve both loan requests. Approved unanimously.
- 2) Collins presented a recommendation from the EDA Board to set the price of the lots potentially being sold to the county at between $100,000 - $125,000 due to the following reasons: sale would not ever add to our tax base into the future since they would be taken off the tax rolls/ they were priced low for a potential business to come in and put up a building and employ local people and pay taxes/ between the costly infrastructure and the cost of the land- the city was barely going to break even at a lower price. After some discussion: Motion by Woelfel, Seconded by Meidlinger, to set the asking price at $125,000 each for the reasons stated by the EDA Board. Approved unanimously.
